

I financially support KLOVE and it has had an enormous impact on my family life. I feel very confident in listening to KLOVE with my young children and would not listen to any other radio station if it went off the air. I listen to it at work. I have many friends who listen to KLOVE and it would be detrimental to displace it with a LPFM broadcaster providing other programming.